

Name _____

Project _____

Website Evaluation Worksheet

Website address: _____

	YES	NO	N/A
Who created this website?
I can identify the author of the website.
The author is an expert or should know about the topic.
The author can be easily contacted.
I can identify the publisher of the website.
What are you getting?
The information makes sense based on what I already know.
I can find the same information in a trusted source.
There is a list of sources I can check.
The information on the website can answer my question.
The information on the website is detailed enough for my research
Is the information fact or opinion? _____
When was it created?
I can find the date the website was created.
The date the site was last updated is current enough for my research
Where am I?
What is the domain of the website (.com, .edu, etc. _____)
What does the domain tell you about the website? _____
Why was this website created?
The reason the website was created is clear.
The author is:
a. trying to sell something		b. educate or inform
c. sounding off or on a rant		d. get support for a cause
How is the website organized?
I can tell what the website is about.
The layout is easy to follow.
It is easy to navigate the site.
The links work.
Spelling and grammar are correct.
The website is free.
I do not have to register to use this website.
Totals (Add YES, NO, & N/A columns)
			OVER

