Dear Guidance Counselor,

The Department of Modern Languages at Molloy College is pleased to announce the fifth Annual Contest for the Humanities Scholarship. The aim of this scholarship is to offer financial support to incoming freshmen and to encourage dedicated and deserving students to further their studies in other cultures and languages and/or in the Humanities in general. Students who apply to this scholarship must major in a program in the Humanities¹.

The Humanities Scholarship will award up to $5,000 to senior high school students who attend Molloy College and who have taken at least two years of a language other than English at the high school level. We would greatly appreciate if you could disseminate this information among your students who plan to major in the any field of the Humanities.

To enter the Contest "Leading with Languages and the Global Citizen," students must submit a thoughtful 600 to 800-word essay answering the following questions:

- How has the experience of learning a second language enabled you to see the world with new eyes?
- Why do you think learning about and understanding other cultures will make you a better leader?
- How has being in a language class inspired you to be a global citizen?

As well, applicants must complete the Humanities Scholarship application form and submit a letter of recommendation from a World Languages faculty member written on their behalf. For more details on submission guidelines, please see attached poster or visit www.molloy.edu/humanitiesscholarship2018. If you have any questions you may email or call me at (516) 323-3305. The deadline for submission is March 28, 2018.

Winners will be announced at the Awards Ceremony on April 3, 2018. Please find attached the poster announcing the scholarship. Thank you very much for your attention to this matter and its dissemination. We look forward to seeing you and your best and brightest at the Award Ceremony this coming April!

Kind regards,

Susana Rubio, Ph.D.
